TWO LOUISVILLE WOMEN INDICTED ON FELONY CHARGES OF SHOPLIFTING AT FORT KNOX PX

David L. Huber, United States Attorney for the Western District of Kentucky, announced today that a federal Grand Jury in Louisville, Kentucky, returned an Indictment charging JEAN D. WILLIAMS, age 59, of Louisville, Kentucky and KAY L. CASON, age 39, of Louisville, Kentucky, with felony shoplifting from the Fort Knox Main Post Exchange (PX).

The Indictment alleges that on July 28, 2006, Williams and Cason aided and abetted one another to steal merchandise totaling $1,125.75 from the Fort Knox Main PX.

If convicted, the maximum potential penalties for each defendant are 10 years imprisonment, a $250,000 fine, and supervised release for a period of 3 years.

The case is being prosecuted by Special Assistant United States Attorney Dan E. Stigall, and it was investigated by the United States Army Military Police Investigations Section.

Williams and Cason are scheduled to appear for arraignment before a United States Magistrate Judge on September 19, 2006, at 9:15 a.m., in Louisville, Kentucky.
